

Celebrate Bastille Day at Epcot! July 14

Bastille Day celebrates a turning point in the French Revolution and the end of feudalism and the monarchy in France. July 14 is a national holiday in France and is celebrated with fireworks.

- ☐ Breakfast a l'Art character meal at the Riviera. Meet Mickey, Minnie, Donald Duck and Daisy in French-inspired costumes representing the arts: painting, writing, sculpture and dance.
- ☐ Skyliner to Epcot, entering the World Showcase.
- ☐ The France Pavilion represents French architecture and sights. The Eiffel Tower is a faithful 1/10 scale model constructed with its blueprints. The Pont des Arts footbridge depicts a typical Parisian bridge over the Seine.
- ☐ Meet Aurora in France: 9:30 am, 10:40, 12:40, 1:55 pm
- ☐ Meet Belle in France: 9:30 am, 10:30, 12:30, 1:50 pm
- ☐ Palais du Cinema: Impressions de France film (18 min) showcases French culture and is shown 9 am-9:30 am and 7 pm - 8:45 pm. There is also an interesting gallery inside.
- ☐ KidCot inside Souvenirs de France for a free postcard and passport stamp (all ages). Learn some French words!
- ☐ Shops: Souvenirs de France t-shirts and French items. Plume and Palette fashion accessories and a cute French-themed Loungefly. Guerlain perfume boutique.
- ☐ Treats: Les Halles cheese and pastry, Vins de France champagne flight and chocolates
- ☐ Ride: Remy's Ratatouille Adventure.